RE: Direct Care Workers and Direct Support/Service Professionals Exceptions to HCW Mandate

This letter rescinds the October 26th, 2021 document addressing temporary exceptions for certain groups of individuals providing care to a family member in the family member's home.

Updated information is provided below regarding the Philadelphia Department of Health's enforcement of the "Emergency Regulation Governing the Control and Prevention of COVID-19 Mandating Vaccines for Healthcare Workers and In Higher Education, Healthcare, and Related Settings" as it pertains to Direct Care Workers or Direct Support/Service Professionals employed in the City of Philadelphia.

The Department will not enforce the Healthcare Worker Vaccine Mandate against certain individuals providing care for a Relative as defined below UNTIL the end of calendar year 2021 OR until federal mandates require vaccinations for these individuals, whichever occurs first. Such individuals should be treated as employees who have received a valid religious or medical exemption.

Plain Language Summary:

This temporary and discretionary non-enforcement applies to nonprofessional individuals employed as a Direct Care Worker or Direct Support/Service Professional actively aiding a family member in the family member's home.

Full Summary:
